

Smithsonian Artist Research Fellowship (SARF) Nomination Form

Deadline to submit: October 31, 2016 at 11:59 PM (EST)

The SARF program provides outstanding artists a unique opportunity to work with Smithsonian collections, facilities, and experts so they may conduct research that inspires new artwork. SARF Fellows spend one to two months in residence at the Smithsonian immersed in its unparalleled collections studying with multidisciplinary experts, building connections between art, science, history, and culture. Artists must be nominated in order to apply. For more information about this fellowship see <http://www.smithsonianofi.com/fellowship-opportunities/>.

How to use this form:

- 1) If you are a Nominator please complete Section I and send the form to the artist you are nominating.
- 2) If you wish to become a Nominee for this fellowship please complete Section II. If Section I is not complete be sure to send the form to your nominator for completion. For information on who may nominate see <http://www.smithsonianofi.com/fellowship-opportunities/>.

Once both sections are complete, the nominee should email their completed form to SIOFI@si.edu. Instructions about next steps will then be sent to the nominee. Incomplete nomination forms, nomination forms sent after the deadline, and nominations with incorrect email addresses will not be accepted.
